I would encourage everyone to attend this event, I believe the message in this book is for the Church at this time, The message is very relevant, challenging and encouraging, this is a date worth marking in your diary.
As it is a non-ticketed event it is first come first

Reviews:

"A wonderful book...I pray it will serve as a wakeup
call to all of us"
- Rev Dr R T Kendall.

"This book could fan into flames the fortunes of God's people once more, With a real urgency, we need the giant to awake".
- Rev Kenny Borthwick.

On Sunday 20th November we have a guest speaker James Fraser, coming from 'Release International'. James will be sharing about their ministry to support the persecuted church.

Release International is a Christian ministry working through local church partners in around 30 countries across the world, helping persecuted Christians prayerfully, pastorally and practically.

Our ministry is based on Hebrews 13 v 3: 'Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.'

International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church, Sunday 6th November

The International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church is a well-established event on the Christian calendar for reminding people of the plight of those who suffer for their love of Christ and the gospel. This is an important opportunity to stand with Christians across the world from multiple denominations and organisations to pray with our persecuted brothers and sisters. This year IDOP Sunday is on November 6th.
